STUDENT PERSONAL ACCOUNT

The Washington School for the Deaf cannot loan money to students for personal needs, school sponsored events, allowance, etc. If you would like to make funds available to your child, the Business Office will set up a student personal account from which the child may request money. The request for money is considered the child's "allowance" and is distributed every Monday and Wednesday via the Student Life Counselors. All requests must be received by Wednesday for the following Monday's allowance and by Monday for Wednesday's allowance.

In the event that your child's account is running low on funds, the Business Office will send home letters to remind you of your child's balance.

The Business Office will not determine restrictions on student personal accounts. To place restrictions on your child's personal account, complete the following section and mail it with your returning student packet.

If the following section is not returned, a NO RESTRICTION will be put on your child's account.
